- 142 Akbar, Copper, Ruba'i or 1/4 Dam, 4.78g, Obv: Swastika within dotted circle, Rev: Persian legend "Ruba'i". Very fine, exceedingly rare. Soon after celebrating the Islamic "Millenium" of the Nuqtavi tradition, Akbar issued a series of mintless and dateless coins, indirectly reflecting his status as an enlightened supreme king in a post-millennial 'timeless' world. The earliest fractional copper issues in this type had only the denomination mentioned on them, with a geometric design appearing on the other side. 'Nisfi' (from Farsi Nisf meaning 'one half') and 'Ruba'i' (from Farsi Rub'a meaning 'one fourth') were the denominational terms used on these issues. The Ruba'i is perhaps the rarest of these coins. Only a handful is known to exist.

204

- 204 Ahmad Shah, Silver Rupee, 11.50g, Sikakul Mint, RY 7?, flower as a mint mark on reverse. Very fine+, very rare.
 These coins were probably struck by Nizams of Hyderabad on period of uncertainty following the death of Nizam ul-Mulk Asaf Jah I in 1749, silver rupee struck under the authority of Nawabs of Rajahmundry and Srikakulam, in the name of Ahmad Shah Bahadur. Rupees of this mint are generally rare and those in the name of Ahmad Shah Bahadur are much rarer than either Muhammad Shah or Alamgir II. Sikakul, or Srikakulam, was a thriving port city on the eastern coast, benefitting from trade between Bengal and the Coromandel Coast and also transoceanic trade with Burma and the Dutch East Indies.

219 Silver 1/2 Rupee, 5.35g, Pseudo name Arkat but may struck some were in South Maharashtra / North Karnataka region, in the name of Shah Alam II, Trident as a mint mark (Not listed in Wiggins). Very fine+, extremely rare.

Rupees of this type were attributed to Danish India"- Tranquebar on the basis of the AH/R Y combination by Uno Jensen. However their find-spots are invariably located in the South Maharashtra / North Karnataka region, where the 'Arcot' rupees had been popular as standard currency and even inspired issues of Maratha mints such as Dharwad. There is a good chance that these coins were struck at one of the local mints in the region, most likely controlled by the Patwardhan Sardars. A half rupee of this type is being offered for the first time at an auction.

249 Mir Mahbub Ali Khan, Copper 1/2 Anna (2), 11.51g & 11.47g, AH 1324 with RY Missing. This is the first year of this type and rather than an error, this is attributable more to experimentation with the newly created dies as the placeholder for RY shows absolutely no signs of any strike and is completely unstruck. This is possible only when the RY was not engraved on the die itself. Never observed earlier. A regular coin of the same type and the same year AH 1324 (with RY 40) is shown as comparison. Both coins are part of this auction lot. Extremely Rare.

 - Subject to Mumbai Jurisdiction
 - The highest bidder of each lot shall be the buyer thereof. In the event of any dispute, the auctioneer shall have absolute discretion to determine the dispute and may put up again and re-sell the disputed lot.
 - The auctioneer shall have absolute discretion to divide any lot, to combine any two or more lots, or to withdraw lots from the sale without giving any reason. The bidding shall be regulated at the absolute discretion of the auctioneer who shall have the right to refuse any bid/s.
 - All lots are put up for sale subject to any reserve price that may be imposed by the seller.
 - Bidding commissions for anyone unable to attend the auction in person may be carried out by the auctioneer without charge, but "buy" commissions will only be accepted if the auctioneer is given absolute discretion.
 - The buyer of any lot shall immediately notify his name and address to the auctioneer and if required,
 - provide bank or other credit references; and
 - pay the full purchase price, or a fractional deposit as may be determined at the discretion of the auctioneer.
 - Lots are sold as shown with all faults, imperfections and errors of description. Neither the auctioneer nor the seller shall give warranty to any buyer in respect of any lot, or be liable for any fault or error of description. All statements as to the items sold, whether made in catalogues, during the course of the auction, or otherwise, are statements of opinion only, and are not and shall not be taken to be statements or representations of fact. The auctioneer reserves the right in forming his opinion, to consult and rely upon any expert or authority considered by him reliable. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if any lot should have been wrongly described in any material aspect, the buyer may reject the same, provided that he shall have given notice of intention to do so and shall have returned the same to the auctioneer within seven (7) days from the day of the sale. Under no circumstances will the auctioneer be liable for any costs, expenses or damages incurred by the buyer in respect of any lot, including, but not limited to, loss of any kind of profit whatsoever. Bidders are advised to scrutinize the lots they bid for.
 - The auctioneer acts solely as an agent and shall not be responsible for any default by either the buyer or the seller or for any action or claim which may arise in respect of any lot.
 - Buyers must satisfy themselves as to the accuracy of their purchases at the time of delivery. The auctioneer cannot be held responsible for any discrepancy which might be discovered after the lots have been removed from either the action room or the auctioneer's premises.
 - The auctioneer will not hold himself responsible for the safe custody of any lots left for more than seven (7) working days after the date of sale, and reserves the right to charge storage and re-sell by auction or privately, and without notice to the buyer, any lots not removed from his premises within fourteen (14) days from the date of sale. Buyers shall not be entitled to remove lots from the auction room during the course of the auction.
 - Each lot shall be at the buyer's risk from the fall of the hammer.
 - Any part of the purchase price left outstanding after the action pursuant to Condition 5, shall be paid in full within seven (7) days of the date of auction. Without prejudice to any rights, the auctioneer reserves the right to charge interest on any overdue payment at the rate of 2½% per month.
 - A "Buyer's Premium" of 14.38 % (including Service Tax) is charged on the Hammer Price.
 - By making a bid the buyer acknowledges his acceptance of these Conditions and shall be bound by them.
 - These Conditions shall take effect and be construed in accordance with Indian law.
- Estimates: The estimate figures below each lot are the auctioneer's estimation of an expected price only. These estimates are not representative of a reserve price and are published only as a guide to buyers. Bidders may bid within the estimate or above the estimate, however, bids which are less than the low estimate will not be considered by the auctioneer.
