Very Important Collection of Rashtrakuta Coins

The coins offered here have been recently known from a single site in Central Maharashtra. They are all struck from uniquely alloyed copper and typologically linked by the obverse device of a 'Garuda'. They bear truncated legends which in some instances are readable. On the basis of these legends, the similarity of fabric and the employment of Garuda as a dynastic emblem, they are attributed to the Rashtrakutas. Historically very important coins offered first time in any Auction.

Mylapore presently part of city of Chennai. It was occupied by Portuguese in 1523 who established Viceroyalty of "Sao Tome de Meliapor" (Saint Thomas of Mylapore). Portuguese rule lasted until 1749. British East India Company took possession of the settlement in 1749 & was incorporated into the administration of the Presidency of Madras. The settlement known as "Luz" develops during this period origins from the "Nossa Senhora Da Luz" (Our Lady of Life). Present coin with little cruder fabric & calligraphy suggest this might be struck by Portuguese in the name of Mughal Emperor.

225 Silver Rupee, 11.27g, Pseudo Mint name Arkat but may struck some were in South Maharashtra / North Karnataka region, in the name of Shah Alam II, Trident as a mint mark (Not listed in Wiggins). Extremely fine+, extremely rare. Rupees of this type were attributed to Danish India”- Tranquebar on the basis of the AH/R Y combination by Uno Jensen. However their find-spots are invariably located in the South Maharashtra / North Karnataka region, where the 'Arcot' rupees had been popular as standard currency and even inspired issues of Maratha mints such as Dharwad. There is a good chance that these coins were struck at one of the local mints in the region, most likely controlled by the Patwardhan Sardars.

Complete mint name on bottom of reverse. Corroded, uncleaned, fine+, extremely rare. A similar rupee is illustrated by Maheshwari & Wiggins as T17a of their 'miscellaneous and unattributed' section and another sold in Auction. On both these coins, the mint-name was cut off the flan so it was impossible to discern where they were struck. Stylistically the coin is close to issues of Daulatabad mint. The extant mint name on this coin can therefore be tentatively suggested to be 'Jalna'.
